

Employee Handbook

Effective Date: 1 April 2026 | Version 4.0 | Owner: Human Resources Department

1. Welcome to NovaTech Enterprises

Welcome to NovaTech Enterprises Pvt Ltd. This Employee Handbook is designed to help you understand our culture, expectations, and the practical aspects of working here. It serves as a general reference guide and should be read together with your employment contract and the Company's detailed policy documents, including the HR Policy, Leave Policy, Code of Conduct, and IT Security Policy.

Founded with a mission to build reliable, scalable technology solutions for enterprise clients, NovaTech Enterprises has grown to a team of over 600 employees across offices in Pune, Hyderabad, and Bengaluru. We value ownership, curiosity, and clear communication, and we expect every employee to hold themselves to a high standard of professional integrity.

2. Our Values

- Customer First: We build with the end user's success in mind, not just technical elegance.
- Ownership: We take responsibility for outcomes, not just tasks assigned to us.
- Transparency: We communicate openly, share context generously, and avoid surprises.
- Continuous Learning: We invest in growth, both our own and our teammates'.
- Respect: We treat colleagues, clients, and partners with fairness and dignity at all times.

3. Your First Week

Your first week is designed to help you get oriented. You will receive your Company laptop, email account, and HRMS login credentials on Day 1. Your reporting manager will walk you through your role expectations, and your HR Business Partner will conduct a formal induction session covering Company policies, benefits enrollment, and administrative processes. A detailed walkthrough of the onboarding schedule is available in the Onboarding Guide.

4. Workplace Conduct

All employees are expected to conduct themselves professionally at all times, whether working from office, remotely, or representing the Company externally. This includes maintaining punctuality, honoring commitments, communicating respectfully, and adhering to the standards set out in the Code of Conduct document. Any violation of workplace conduct standards may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

5. Compensation and Payroll

Salaries are credited to employees' registered bank accounts on the last working day of each month. Payslips are made available through the HRMS portal. Any discrepancy in salary must be reported to the Payroll team within 5 working days of salary credit. Tax deductions are made in accordance with applicable Income Tax regulations, and employees may submit investment declarations twice a year for tax planning purposes.

6. Leave and Time Off

Details of leave entitlements, including Earned Leave, Casual Leave, Sick Leave, and other categories, are covered comprehensively in the Company's Leave Policy. All leave must be applied for and approved through the HRMS portal prior to being availed.

7. Learning and Development

NovaTech Enterprises supports employee growth through an annual learning budget of ₹25,000 per employee for external certifications, courses, or conferences, subject to manager approval and relevance to the employee's role. Internal training sessions, including technical workshops and leadership development programs, are conducted quarterly and announced via the internal Learning Portal.

8. Workplace Facilities and IT Equipment

Each employee is issued a laptop and other equipment necessary for their role at the time of joining. Equipment remains Company property and must be returned in good working condition at the time of separation. Any loss or damage due to negligence may be recovered from the employee as per the IT Asset Policy. Use of Company IT systems is governed by the IT Security Policy, and employees are expected to review and comply with it.

9. Health, Safety, and Wellbeing

The Company is committed to providing a safe working environment in compliance with applicable occupational health and safety regulations. Employees are encouraged to report any safety concerns to the Facilities team immediately. NovaTech also offers an Employee Assistance Program (EAP) providing confidential counseling support for personal or work-related stress, accessible via the HR portal.

10. Anti-Harassment and Equal Opportunity

NovaTech Enterprises is an equal opportunity employer and maintains a zero-tolerance policy toward harassment or discrimination of any kind. All employees, including contractors and interns, are covered under the Company's POSH Policy. Complaints can be raised confidentially with the Internal Committee, whose contact details are published on the HR portal.

11. Exit Process

When an employee decides to leave the Company, the resignation should be submitted formally through the HRMS portal, followed by a discussion with the reporting manager. HR will share a checklist covering notice period, knowledge transfer, asset return, and final settlement timelines. We encourage open conversations during exit interviews as they help us continuously improve the employee experience.

12. Acknowledgment

By continuing employment with NovaTech Enterprises Pvt Ltd, employees acknowledge that they have read, understood, and agree to comply with this Employee Handbook and all referenced Company policies. This handbook does not constitute an employment contract and may be revised by the Company at its discretion, with reasonable notice provided to employees.
